Thank you. I have to see if the ERRS subcontractor who does maintenance on the systems is Available that week. I will get back with you

Thanks
Chris

Morning Chris,

I hope to have the excel sheet modified by this evening. Looking at my schedule and the office schedule, I believe the week of the 29th will work.

Thank you for your help this week. Please revise the spreadsheet as we discussed. Are you available the week of 8/29? This may be a good week to perform residential bi-annual sampling and to meet to work on other tasks on the TD

Please let me know
Thanks
Chris
